Sat. May 23, 2009
8:30 am – 10:30 am
Rio Grande Nature Center
State Park
2901 Candelaria Road NW

You will experience a unique opportunity to take amazing shots of a variety of beautiful birds of prey—in natural settings. This event is equally popular with both serious and amateur photographers. Enjoy Breakfast with the Birds—and while you eat, we'll give a brief presentation about Wildlife Rescue and the history of each of the birds that you will be photographing.

Participation is limited to the first 25 photographers who register, so please register early!

Register at our web site www.WRINM.org

Additional, specific details about the event will be provided to all registered participants.
